

close the book to Quarter Horse and Thoroughbred mares, but not before she ensured that Jet was booked to World and Congress Champions, and top show and producing mares. Bailey and DeGraff then marketed heavily to APHA and ApHC mare owners, offering a Live Color Foal Guarantee and an engagement in the Paint Horse Breeder's Trust.

And now, just in time for the breeding season in the southern hemisphere, One Hot Krymsun will be available in Australia via frozen semen. This time the semen was frozen by DeGraff Stables. Thanks to DeGraff who plowed through mounds of paperwork and approvals to get Jet through the USDA quarantine export process. Interested parties should contact Gene Redwood who will act as broker for bookings in Australia.

One of the most exciting things for the Baileys in 2003 has been seeing the foals arriving by One Hot Krymsun. They generally have his distinctive movement with a long neck, short back, and big hip.

In 2004, One Hot Krymsun will stand again at DeGraff Stables in Port Clinton, Ohio at a stud fee of $2,250. According to Bailey, "It just makes good business sense to continue on with Robin." Mare owners and veterinarians raved about the customer service and the high quality shipments DeGraff delivered in 2003. Typical of the comments was this statement by Jennifer Mendes, "Robin was awe-
